Comparison

Packaged Atta	Freshly Milled Pure Tree Flour
Sourced not disclosed	100 % Certified Organic grains, millets, pulses sourced directly from the farm.
Sometimes broken or low quality grains might be used	Every batch quality and grain size is checked
Grains are milled and stored may get exposed to heat, humidity and light	Milling is initiated once order is confirmed and placed, so storage is for minimal time
Additives, preservatives are added to increase shelf life	No additives, preservatives or chemicals added
Stored for months depending on the sales	Delivered within 24 hours

Why organic certification is important?

- ✓ Certified Organic ensures the product is really organic.
- ✓ Certified Organic ensures the product should not get any contamination till it reaches your hands.
- ✓ Certified Organic ensures the farms, storage facilities, as well as packaging facilities, are compliant with organic certification rules.
